

THE KNABE-AMPICO REPRODUCTION PIANO

THE world's great Pianists and Composers live forever in this wonderful instrument, which reproduces the playing of famous pianists with absolute fidelity to the master's performance.

Imagine the delight of hearing the piano in your home sing a Chopin Nocturne, played by Godowsky, or recreating the dazzling brilliancy of a Liszt Etude, as if Busoni were seated at your piano and playing for you alone. The Knabe-Ampico brings the whole world of music to your instant command—great classic compositions, delightful opera arrangements, dances, ragtime—all are possible with this perfected piano, a new and truly artistic instrument of music.

The Knabe-Ampico Grand $1800. Uprights $1200 and $1150, dependent upon size. The Haines-Ampico $950 and $900. The Stoddard-Ampico $750.

Washington's Farewell

After the last straggling detachment of defeated Britishers marched sullenly down Broadway, General Washington, heavy of heart, sad with the ordeal that was before him, dismounted at Fraunces' Tavern. On the night of December 4, 1783, the Great General returned to that famous old coffee house to bid his officers farewell.

The coffee house was the center of the life of the community. It was at the coffee house that the affairs of the day were discussed, that public opinion was developed. What "they said at the coffee house" was told about town to forecast events in stirring pre-revolutionary days.

In the life of our country, coffee still plays its important part.

Today, it is over a demi-tasse that the affairs of the world are discussed, that our national problems are decided.

Yuban--the favorite coffee of the most critical city in the world.
